

Eritrean nationals in Brisbane reiterate readiness to strengthen national resolute rebuff

Melbourne, 15 April 2010 - Eritrean nationals residing in the Australian city of Brisbane conducted a seminar, during which they reiterated commitment to strengthen the national resolute rebuff.

The Eritrean Consul General to Australia and New-Zealand, Mr. Beshir Idrisnur, gave briefings to the participants on the objective situation in the Homeland and the national resolute rebuff and integrated development program for 2010. He pointed out that the national development drive is primarily aimed at improving the people's standard of living and ensuring social justice.

Mr. Beshir further stressed the need for citizens to enhance the national resolute rebuff through reinforcing unity and consciousness.

The participants on their part stated that they have managed to properly follow up the implementation of development programs and impressive achievements being registered thanks to Eritrean media outlets. In this connection, they asserted that they would fulfill what is expected of them for the success of the national resolute rebuff.
